

PSYCHOANALYTIC FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

About the Program

The Institute for Psychoanalysis, with cooperation of the Chicago Psychoanalytic Society offers fellowships that run for one year beginning in September and fellows will be selected in late summer. The fellowship program is offered at no cost to participants.

The Psychoanalytic Fellows program is open to advanced trainees and recent graduates in psychiatry, psychology, and social work who have significant interest in psychoanalysis as a body of knowledge and as a framework with which to understand and carry out therapeutic work.

The Psychoanalytic Fellowship program will include:

- Monthly two-hour seminar on a Saturday morning led by a member of the Institute faculty. Relevant readings will be suggested.
- Four clinical case conferences will offer Fellows the opportunity to present clinical work for discussion with faculty and peers.
- Mentorship by an Institute faculty member. Mentors and Fellows will meet monthly to discuss therapeutic issues, papers, research, and other topics of interest to the Fellow.
- Free entry as a guest to the scientific meetings held by the Chicago Institute and those sponsored by the Chicago Psychoanalytic Society during the Fellowship year.
