What's Emerging About Emerging Adults?

A Lecture By
Jesse Viner, M.D.

April 5, 2017 at 7:00pm - 8:30pm

122 South Michigan Avenue
2nd Floor Auditorium
Chicago, Illinois 60603

Emerging adults live in that space after adolescence and before reaching full-fledged adulthood when they can explore various life possibilities. This presentation will explore this newly defined phase of life and discuss what makes it special, including emotional development and brain maturation, risk factors and how development during this time can be facilitated by parents, professionals, and cultural institutions.

Dr. Viner is on the faculty of the Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis and Assistant Professor of Psychiatry at Northwestern Feinberg School of Medicine. He is the Medical Director of Yellowbrick, which he founded in recognition of the unique specialized treatment needs of emerging adults and their families.

The Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis thanks Yellowbrick Foundation for their generous sponsorship of this lecture series.
