THE CHICAGO INSTITUTE FOR PSYCHOANALYSIS

Founded in 1932, the Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis is one of the foremost psychoanalytic training centers in the world. For 75 years, it has served as a recognized leader in the areas of treatment, education, and community service. The Institute’s mission is to provide training in the theory and practice of psychoanalysis and psychotherapy and to enhance psychodynamic thought through research and scholarship. It applies these principles to therapeutic and educational programs for the public, and offers treatment for children and adults at reduced fees, to the benefit of underserved communities.

ACCREDITATION

Physicians: This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essentials Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint sponsorship of the American Psychoanalytic Association and the Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis. The American Psychoanalytic Association is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians and takes responsibility for the content, quality and scientific integrity of this CME activity. The American Psychoanalytic Association designates each Saturday program as earning a maximum of 4 hours in category 1 credit towards the physician Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

Psychologists: The Institute for Psychoanalysis of Chicago is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. The Institute maintains responsibility for these programs. The Institute designates these continuing education activities as earning a maximum of 4 hours Continuing Education.

Professional Counselors: The Institute for Psychoanalysis of Chicago is approved as a continuing education sponsor for Professional Counselors and Clinical Professional Counselors by the Department of Professional Regulation of the State of Illinois. The Institute designates each of these continuing education activities as earning a maximum of 4 hours Continuing Education credit.

Social Workers: The Institute for Psychoanalysis of Chicago is approved as a continuing education sponsor for Social Workers by the Department of Professional Regulation of the State of Illinois. The Institute designates each of these continuing education activities as earning a maximum of 4 hours Continuing Education credit for Social Workers.

THE MARIAN D. TOLPIN MEMORIAL SEMINAR ON THE FORWARD EDGE OF SELF PSYCHOLOGY
— and —
USING WINNICOTT

Saturday, March 22, 2014
Saturday, April 5, 2014
122 South Michigan Avenue
National Louis University
Room 5006 (5th floor)
Chicago, IL 60603

The Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis
Presents Two Saturday Afternoon Programs in Spring, 2014

The Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis
122 South Michigan Avenue
Suite 1300
Chicago, IL 60603
The Institute for Psychoanalysis presents the sixth annual seminar in honor of the memory of Marian Tolpin.

Guest Speaker

Joseph Lichtenberg, M.D.

There will be a talk by Joseph Lichtenberg entitled: The Origins of the Sense of Self in Infancy and the Further Enlivening of the Self through Psychotherapy followed by a Psychoanalytic Case Presentation with commentary by Dr. Lichtenberg.

Educational Objectives

After the presentation the participant will be able to:

- promote the enlivening of a patient’s self through psychotherapy
- picture how the patient’s presentation of self in therapy reflects the origin of the self in infancy
- draw on forward edge concepts in self psychology while working with patients

The Marian D. Tolpin Memorial Seminar is made possible by the Marian Tolpin Memorial Fund. The Chicago Institute thanks the Tolpin Family and other generous donors to the fund.

---

USING WINNICOTT

Saturday, April 5, 2014

12:30 p.m. to 4:45 p.m.

No one besides Freud has a greater influence in psychoanalysis today than D.W. Winnicott. In the list of most-accessed articles in the psychoanalytic archive, the top two are by Winnicott and six of the first 17. Numerous terms that have become commonplace in the field are associated with him, such as “holding,” “the transitional object,” “the good-enough mother,” and “the use of the object.” The conference begins with James W. Anderson, a leading psychobiographer who has interviewed many of the people who were closest to Winnicott, exploring who Winnicott was as a person and how his innovative psychoanalytic approach grew out of his life experience. Then three of the foremost experts on Winnicott explain how we may make use of Winnicott in our clinical work and in our understanding of human interaction. Joyce Slochower, who wrote a classic text, recently expanded and published in a second edition (Holding and Psychoanalysis: A Relational Perspective), considers how she as a relational analyst utilizes Winnicott. Frank Summers, one of the foremost expositors of Winnicott and other object-relations theorists and a creative clinician in his own right, examines ways of using Winnicott in his own work and in the work of others. Kenneth Newman, who has written innovative papers that take off from Winnicott’s concept of the use of the analyst, describes his perspective by showing its application to a scene from the Bergman film, Autumn Sonata.

Educational Objectives

After the presentation the participant will be able to:

- Discern false-self defensive states in patients
- Nurture patients in developing more of a true-self way of living
- Use holding with patients and avoid the pitfalls of a misunderstanding of holding
- Make use of Winnicott’s concepts of the transitional object and potential space
- Help patients become able to use you, the therapist, as an object

---

FACULTY

James W. Anderson, Ph.D., is Faculty, Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis, Clinical Professor, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, Northwestern University, and Editor of the Annual of Psychoanalysis. His papers include: How D. W. Winnicott Conducted Psychoanalysis (Psychoanalytic Psychology, 2014) and D. W. Winnicott’s Constant Search for the Life That Feels Real (Stern & Salo. The Winnicott Tradition, 2014).

Kenneth Newman, M.D., is Faculty and former Dean of the Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis. He is the co-author, with Howard Bacal, of Theories of Object Relations: Bridges to Self Psychology (1989). His published papers include: “The Usable Analyst: The Role of the Affective Engagement of the Analyst in Reaching Analyzability” (Annual of Psychoanalysis, 1999) and “A More Usable Winnicott” (Psychoanalytic Inquiry, 2013).

Joyce Slochower, Ph.D., is Professor Emerita, Hunter College & Graduate Center, and Visiting Clinical Professor & Supervisor, N.Y.U. Postdoctoral Program. Her books include: Holding and Psychoanalysis: A Relational Perspective (2nd Edition, 2013) and Psychoanalytic Collisions (2013). Her papers include Analytic deliberations and the Discourse: Winnicott, His Patients, and Us (Psychoanalytic Dialogues, 2011).

Frank Summers, Ph.D., is Faculty, Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis; Clinical Professor, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, Northwestern University, and President of the Division of Psychoanalysis of the American Psychological Association. His books include: The Psychoanalytic Vision: The Experiencing Subject, Tranescendence, and the Therapeutic Process (2013); Self Creation: Psychoanalytic Therapy, and the Art of the Possible (2005), and Object Relations Theory and Psychoanalysis (1994).

---

REGISTRATION FORM

- Saturday, March 22, 2014
  - Marian Tolpin Memorial Seminar
- Saturday, April 5, 2014
  - Using Winnicott

122 South Michigan Avenue

Room 5006 (7th floor), Chicago, IL 60603

SEND COMPLETED FORM TO:

The Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis
Att: Christine Susman
122 South Michigan Avenue, Suite 1314
Chicago, IL 60603

T: (312) 922-7474  F: (312) 922-5866
Email: csusman@chicagoanalysis.org
Website: www.chicagoanalysis.org

Note: Seating is limited so early registration is strongly encouraged.

Registration fee is $60.00 (student rate $30).

Special rate of $100 ($50 for students) for those who register for both programs.

Checks should be made payable to the Institute for Psychoanalysis.

Check enclosed for $____

Or please charge $____ to:

- MasterCard
- Visa

Card # _______

Expiration Date: _______ _________

Signature: __________________________

Name: ___________________________

Address: ___________________________

City: __________________ State: ______

Daytime Phone: ___________________

Email Address: ___________________

Professor: _________________________

Website: www.chicagoanalysis.org

Email: csusman@chicagoanalysis.org

Phone: 312-922-7474

Mail: 122 South Michigan Avenue, Suite 1314, Chicago, IL 60603

Address: Suite 1314

City: Chicago  State: IL  Zip: 60603