

PSYCHOANALYTIC FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

About the Program

The Institute for Psychoanalysis, with cooperation of the Chicago Psychoanalytic Society offers fellowships that run for one year beginning in September and fellows will be selected in late summer. The fellowship program is offered at no cost to participants.

The Psychoanalytic Fellows program is open to advanced trainees and recent graduates in psychiatry, psychology, and social work who have significant interest in psychoanalysis as a body of knowledge and as a framework with which to understand and carry out therapeutic work.

The Psychoanalytic Fellowship program will include:

- Once per month, 2 hour seminar on a Saturday morning led by a member of the Institute faculty. Relevant readings will be suggested. Some clinical case conferences will also be scheduled.
- An Institute faculty member will serve as a mentor for each fellow through the yearlong program. Mentors and fellows will meet at least monthly to discuss therapeutic issues, papers, research and any other topics relevant to the fellow.
- Fellows will be welcome as guests to the scientific meetings held by the Chicago Psychoanalytic Society during the academic year, starting in September.
- All fellows will be granted free admission to local conferences sponsored by the Institute for Psychoanalysis and the Chicago Psychoanalytic Society.
